President John Hoyt opened the meeting.

General Notices:

Bill Fintel will be the Club's Treasurer. Our long standing Treasurer, Lou

Archdeacon, has become ill. Cards of sympathy can be sent to her using the the address found on our Club Web Site. Also Liz Dupont is sick and cards can be sent using the address found on our Club Web Page.

The Big Sit, being held at Cape Henlopen Hawk watch today has so far recorded 68 species.

The next Club field trip will be October 20 at the Cape Henlopen Hawk Watch, Leader: Chris Bennett.

Treasurer Bill Fintel presented the finance report:

Check book balance of $2893.52. We donated $150 honorarium to the Nature Conservancy for their presentation at our meeting last Spring.

Program: Kevin Fleming showing photographs from his book "Wild Delmarva".

Kevin shared with us some of his photographs and his techniques for taking such wonderful photos of our region. He gave a little story behind each of his photos.

Round Robin:

Members were very quiet and did not report any unusual sightings although two members of our Club that morning saw the 5 White Pelicans that have been hanging around Prime Hook.

Treasurer: David Weber
